SOURCE: 69 FR 50309, Aug. 16, 2004, unless otherwise noted.

§ 363.130 What does this subpart cover?

This subpart is the offering of the certificate of indebtedness by the Secretary of the Treasury (Secretary), and will continue until suspended or terminated by the Secretary. This subpart is also the governing regulations for the certificate of indebtedness.

§ 363.131 What is a TreasuryDirect® certificate of indebtedness?

A TreasuryDirect certificate of indebtedness (certificate of indebtedness) is a security held within your primary or linked account, including a minor account for which you are the custodian, that is issued daily, with a one-day maturity, that automatically rolls over at maturity until you request redemption. A certificate of indebtedness has a minimum purchase amount of one cent. The only purpose of a certificate of indebtedness is to accumulate funds for the purchase of another eligible security in the TreasuryDirect system. A certificate of indebtedness within a minor's account is the property of the minor alone.

§ 363.132 Can the sale of the certificate of indebtedness be suspended?

The Secretary may suspend and rescind the suspension of sales of the certificate of indebtedness by announcement at any time.

§ 363.133 What happens to my certificate of indebtedness if the offering is terminated by the Secretary?

Upon the termination of this offering by the Secretary, the certificate of indebtedness ceases to roll over; the proceeds will be paid by the ACH method to the bank account at a financial institution that you designated in your TreasuryDirect® account as your primary bank account.

§ 363.134 What regulations cover a certificate of indebtedness?

The regulations in part 363 apply to a certificate of indebtedness. We expressly disclaim representations or warranties regarding a certificate of indebtedness that in any way conflict with these regulations and other applicable law.

§ 363.135 In what form is a certificate of indebtedness issued?

A certificate of indebtedness is issued in electronic form only in the TreasuryDirect® system.

§ 363.136 Do certificates of indebtedness pay interest?

Certificates of indebtedness do not pay any interest. However, the Secretary may prescribe a rate of interest, or change the interest rate, for certificates of indebtedness by announcement at any time. The new rate would apply to certificates of indebtedness issued thereafter, as provided in the announcement. The Secretary's determination of the rate will be final.
